

To whom it may concern.

I had the pleasure of meeting Pat Armistead quiet some time ago now.

Often we meet people for a reason, which at the time may not be so apparent.

We hit it off well.

I had written an unpublished new age manuscript.

It was a labour of love and took quite some time to achieve.

I had however, reached a brick wall as to how to take it from there to a published book.

This is where Pat came to the rescue, valiantly I have to add.

She headed the project for me and now it is successfully published in book form, on Kindle and various other outlets and in PDF format as well.

The process was from my perspective perfect.

Pat took all the hassle out of the project and did it all.

Some times when we are flagging in enthusiasm, it needs someone else to come in with fresh eyes and get you over the line. This is how it felt with Pat on my side.

My thanks to you Pat.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Pat to anyone in my situation.

I wish you and Pat the very best in all you want to achieve and do.
